FAMILY GUIDES

You may have questions such as:

- I have an appointment with the Youth Welfare Office. How do they help me?
- We're living apart. How can I see my child more often?
- My kid refuses to go to school. How should I deal with this?
- There's not enough money for the kids. What can we do?
- We're being evicted from our flat. Where can we find help?

We are family educators and first points of contact.

The consultation is

- free of charge, anonymous and confidential
- open to everyone
- available in several languages

Check our website to find out which language we offer on which consulting days:

We are looking forward to see you !
